3rd Sunday of Easter

My Sunday Mass Page

Sunday, 11 April 2027 · Luke 24:35–48

Name _____

1 Today's Gospel

Jesus Eats Fish with His Friends

Jesus' friends were together, talking about Him. Suddenly Jesus was standing right there! "Peace be with you," He said. His friends were scared. They thought He was a ghost!

Jesus said, "Look at my hands and feet; yes, it is I indeed." He asked them to touch Him and see. His friends were so happy, they could hardly believe it! Then Jesus asked, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave Him some grilled fish, and He ate it while they watched.

A ghost cannot eat fish! Jesus did this to show that He is really alive, with a real body. Then He told His friends, "You are witnesses to this." That means they would tell everyone the good news. You can tell people that Jesus is alive too!

Big idea! Jesus is really alive! We can tell everyone the good news.

Listen at Mass: In the Psalm we sing "Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord." In the first reading, Peter tells everyone that God raised Jesus to new life.

2 One Little Question

How did Jesus show He was really alive? Circle the right answers.

He showed His hands

He flew away

He ate some fish

He hid

3 My Prayer

Say thank You to Jesus for being alive and always with you:

Dear Jesus,

4 Draw It!

Draw Jesus eating fish with His happy friends.

Ideas: the grilled fish · Jesus showing His hands · surprised faces · a table · a big Peace be with you

"Look at my hands and feet; yes, it is I indeed." Luke 24:39