Saint Andrew Dung-Lac and companions

brave Christians of Vietnam

Long ago in Vietnam, a country not far from Singapore, it was against the law to be a Christian. Andrew Dung-Lac was a priest who kept teaching about Jesus and celebrating Mass in secret. He and many friends, priests, catechists, mothers and fathers, stayed faithful to Jesus even when it was dangerous, and they gave their lives for Him. The Church remembers 117 of them as saints, and today the Church in Vietnam is full of people who love Jesus.

Holy martyrs of Vietnam, pray for us!

Draw yourself doing this: Pray for Christians in places where it is hard to go to Mass.
