Saint of the week · feast day 2 January

Saints Basil and Gregory

two best friends who became great bishops

Basil and Gregory met at school in Athens and became best friends. They loved learning, but they loved God even more. Both became bishops and taught people that the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are one God. Basil built a place where sick and poor people could be cared for, almost like a little town of kindness. Gregory was a wonderful speaker and poet. Their friendship helped both of them grow closer to God.

Saint Basil and Saint Gregory, pray for us!

Draw yourself doing this: Be a good friend who helps others love Jesus.
