Saint of the week · feast day 4 March

Saint Casimir

a prince who loved prayer and the poor

Casimir was a prince in Poland and Lithuania, more than five hundred years ago. He could have had anything he wanted, but he cared more about God and about poor people than about riches. Casimir loved to pray, and he was gentle, honest and fair to everyone. He was always ready to help those in need. He died when he was only twenty-five, and the people loved him so much that they called him a saint.

Saint Casimir, pray for us!
