Saint of the week · feast day 23 April

Saint George

a brave Roman soldier who gave his life for Jesus

George lived long ago, about seventeen hundred years ago. He was a brave soldier in the Roman army. George loved Jesus very much. When the emperor ordered Christians to stop praying to Jesus, George would not stop. He told everyone he was a Christian, even when it was dangerous. In the end, George gave his life for Jesus, and the Church has remembered him ever since. People tell a story of a dragon too, to show how brave and good he was.

Saint George, pray for us!

Draw yourself doing this: Be brave this week: stand up kindly for someone who is being left out, or say your prayers even when your friends are watching.
